Consumer Demand for Energy as a Service

January 10, 2012 1:00 PM - 2:15 PM

LVCC, South Hall S204-205

Broadband has opened the home energy market to companies beyond traditional utilities and energy-service providers. Using data from our Residential Energy Management research service, we unearth the untapped possibilities for providers and manufacturers in the energy sector and share how market forces and consumer demand are creating new, value-added services.
